1. Tell us a little bit about yourself and your background.

I was born and raised in Fargo and graduated from Fargo North in 1991. I am married to Brad and have three children, the youngest of which is a senior at Fargo North. I work at Edward Jones under Financial Advisor Russ Boyle. I also volunteer at the YWCA emergency shelter and previously was involved with 4-H programs and Fargo Youth Hockey Board.

2. What was the reason you ran for a Board position?

To continue to provide the excellent education system we have in the Fargo Public Schools.

3. What do you see as big challenges for the District going forward? Challenges for K-12 education in North Dakota?

Making changes in the School District for the benefit of our children and staff.

4. Something you're proud of as a representative of the Fargo Public Schools:

The excellent education and staff we have built for our children.
