Famous Chef Jose Andres came to the US from Spain and not only has won the highest honor for a chef, the James Beard Award, but has led humanitarian work to areas hit by natural disasters such as Haiti and Puerto Rico. He won the Humanitarian of the Year prize and was nominated for a 2019 Nobel Peace Prize.

Attention all students: Have you ever seen a professional athlete or even an adult and thought "They have it made! Life must have been so easy for them growing up." This Friday, the FCA Club will be hearing about a top college recruit who had a life altering accident on the football field during his senior year. He battled depression as he rehabilitated and learned to live his life again.

Please join us this Friday morning at 8:00am in Mr Edwards room to hear the story of Iggy Johnson and how he came to find his Faith! All students and staff are welcome to join us! Bring a friend!

Attention Art Club: Our next meeting will be tomorrow after school. We hope to see you there

There will be a girls wrestling meeting at Davies on Thursday at 4:00 in H101.

The itsy-bitsy spider has arrived in the library just in time for the October makerspace! Make this delightful little arachnid out of old CD's in the library before school, after school, or during DT. Remember to make an e-hall pass to the library makerspace!

Attention students and staff! This year's fall reading program is called IT'S A BIG WORLD BOOK BINGO. Play to expand your reading interests, knowledge, understanding, and appreciation of our diversity and uniqueness! Each square contains a reading challenge. Everyone gets a prize when they complete their first BINGO! Each additional BINGO gives you a chance to be entered for bigger prize drawings held the last day of the program which is Nov. 21st. A BLACKOUT gives you 3 extra chances! Prizes are snacks, books, gift cards, and other top secret "stuff"!

Thank you for listening to today's announcements and let's make today
Ca-CAWsome!
