All Students:

The Davies High School Tutoring Club is planning to host a TEDx Youth event in Fargo, this year. Before details can be set for this event, they want to gather information. They are asking students, in the area, to complete a Google Form to see if they are interested in participating either by attending or giving a speech. There are informational flyers posted around the school that has a QR code for you to complete the survey. If there are any questions, please reach out to Davies Tutoring Club teacher advisor, Edward Hentges at hentgee@fargo.k12.nd.us.

Today is the final day of the book fair. Don't miss out on your chance to buy some great reading material for yourself or a gift at the Scholastic Book Fair today through Friday! Horror books like Darkroom and Fazbear Frights have been popular finds! Remember to sign up for free books and posters by using the link in your email. Today's winners are Lachlan Metcalf, Emma Overgaard, Brayden Grandstrand, Ms. Isabella Anderson, and Caleb McKay. Come to the library to get your free book or poster!

Please donate NEW and gently used children and teen books to the library or donate change to All for Books at the Book Fair, and we will do the shopping and donate books for you! All books will be given to Down Home - allowing kids to have books to read when they move into their new home! Thanks so much for donating if you can!

Thank you for listening to today's announcements and remember: Don't Quack like a Duck when you can Soar like an Eagle!
