

Fargo South Student Announcements
Tuesday, August 31st, 2021

Announcements:

Anyone interested in joining boys soccer, it is not too late. If you are interested, practices start at 4:00 on the turf in the stadium and you can talk with Coach Vatres to find out how to get started.

Any juniors/seniors that want to study prior to taking the ASVAB on September 30th, can sign up for help at the Career Center. Sergeant Smith will be here during BAM hour on Wednesdays for interested students.

Attention Juniors and Seniors - it's time to talk about colleges! Join the South High College Support Network for the first meeting of the year after school Friday, September 3rd in C30. We will be walking through the Common Application, the website to visit for filling out applications for schools across the US. Join us and bring your questions!

Guys and Dolls auditions are this week. You can still sign up for a slot on the board outside the Black Box, G21. If you have any questions, ask Mr. Kennedy or Mrs. Lichtblau. There is no experience necessary, and all are welcome.

Juniors and Seniors: The annual college fair will be held on September 16 from 10 to noon. Over 45 colleges and employers from around the nation will be set up at this event for you to visit with. South High will be taking one bus. If you are interested in attending, please stop in the Career Center, and sign up with Mrs. Strapp.
