Wednesday, February 1st, 2023

Announcements:

Homework Zone is today after school to help students who would like tutoring assistance on their assignments. Mrs. Sims will be available from 3:45 to 4:45 in room C27. Please see your principal if you have any questions or need help finding the room.

All Fargo South Boys Interested in the Fargo South Boys Track Program. Be a part of a State Record holding team looking to defend their title and other events setting your own records. With 19 events, your abilities can certainly fit into one of them. The South Boys Track meeting is in room C-30 at 3:45 today. See what the sport is all about and spend your spring Running, Jumping, or Throwing for the Fargo South Boys Track and Field program.

Here are the dress-up days for snow week: Tomorrow: Blue & White, and Friday: Flannel Friday

The One-Act play performs tomorrow (Thursday), at 7:30. The play is called "After Hours," it is a play about the wild things that can happen in a clothing store.. after hours ;p. The play is short, and hilarious! Entry is based on donation! All proceeds will go to our Fargo South Pantry. Come and support the Theatre Department tomorrow at 7:30 PM in the Theater

Today is Workforce Wednesday. Hornbachers will be here in the commons from 11am – 1pm to talk about their jobs and careers.

Prom Committee meets before and after school tomorrow in room A35 by the gym! Come help us build the Prom set!

Today is the first day of ACT math practice in room E11 after school at 3:45. See your math teacher with questions.

Tickets to the semi formal Snowball Dance held this Saturday from 8:30 pm to 11:00 pm can be now purchased in the bookkeeping office. All tickets must be purchased by 3:30 pm on Friday. No tickets will be sold at the door. If you are bringing someone from a different high school, make sure that student presents their school ID at the door. Please park on the south side of the building.

Any students interested in acting, sword-fighting, being a stagehand, or anything having to do with performance, our Drama club is hosting the SOAPs!

SOAPs are Student One Act Plays. These are plays written AND directed by students here at South. They will perform on March 10th! There are three plays, so there are three opportunities for you to join performances! Auditions for these plays are on February 6th after school. You MUST sign up for a time slot on the board outside of the Black Box by Friday THIS week. Visit Mr. Nielsen for questions!
