

Fargo South Student Announcements
Wednesday, January 31st, 2024

Announcements:

Starting the week of February 5th, students in grades 9-12 will have the opportunity to earn prizes for good attendance – students with perfect attendance for the week and students who are making progress will be put into a drawing to win a cookie weekly AND a drawing for a gift card every three weeks. Being in class is a crucial step in building a bright future!

Students who have not completed the Civics Exam will be taking the test on Thursday in C30 during an open or study hall. Please see the list outside of the main office to see what period you have been assigned. You will need to bring your charged PLD to C30 to take the test. The Civics Exam is required to graduate. The study guide can be found in an email from Dr. Mortrud. See Mrs. Evenson or Dr. Mortrud with any questions.

Seniors, reminder that your senior photo for the yearbook is due today, any photos turned in after today will be subject to a $10 late fee. If you have any questions, please talk to Mr. Monsen in room C39.

Hello Art Club. We are meeting this Wednesday, January 31st in room G27.

We meet from 3:40 till 5:00pm. This week we will be learning straw weaving to create some colorful weaved bracelets. Hope to see you there!

HOSA is meeting on Wednesday at 8am in room C30. We will be making Valentines, discussing our next service project, and details about SLC will be shared. If you are attending SLC and can't make the meeting, please check in with Mrs. Horne by Wednesday.

Happy Wellness Wednesday and last day of January. We know that January can be hard for people because it is cold, dark, and snowy (though not as much this year). So congratulate yourself on making it through January and now we are fully on our way into the new year. So take a breath and give yourself a little bit of love and compassion today.
