AWARD-WINNING FILMMAKER TO SPEAK AT FPS HIGH SCHOOLS

For students, movie day in the classroom was always a fun way to learn. This time, an award-winning filmmaker will show the film, and not in the classroom.

- WHAT: Lest They Be Forgotten Video Screening
WHEN: Wednesday, April 10, at 9:00 a.m., and Thursday, April 11 9:00 a.m. and 1:00 p.m. See schedule below.
WHERE: Davies, North, and South High Schools
CONTACT: Troy Cody, Davies High principal, 701.446.5604 or codyt@fargo.k12.nd.us, Andrew Dahlen, North High principal, 701.446.2404 or Andy.Dahlen@fargo.k12.nd.us, and Dr. Todd Bertsch, South High principal, 701.446.2004 or bertsto@fargo.k12.nd.us for more information.

On Wednesday, April 10, and Thursday, April 11, students in various grades at Davies, North, and South High Schools will watch award-winning filmmaker Larry Cappetto's documentary series Lest They Be Forgotten.

Cappetto has spoken to more than 100,000 students across the country and shown his film Lest They Be Forgotten. Cappetto spent more than ten years interviewing more than 1,000 veterans to preserve history, and help others understand the sacrifices these men and women made to ensure our freedom. The day of the event, he will be joined by local war veterans Joe Wallevand, Steve Perreault, Roger Gress, Bob Trieglaff, Tom Archigo, Brad Reed, and Jon Darling so they can share their stories. During the screenings at Fargo South and North High Schools, Fargo Public School's staff and family of Fargo Public Schools alumni who lost a loved one in the war will be recognized and honored.

Schedule of Screening

Davies High School theater: Wednesday, April 10 at 9:00 a.m.
Fargo North High School theater: Thursday, April 11 at 9:00 a.m.
Fargo South High School dome gymnasium: Thursday, April 11 at 1:00 p.m.
