Davies High School will hold its eighth annual Art & Activities Expo on Wednesday, May 22. The event features student artwork displayed throughout the school and a sidewalk chalk competition, with more than 120 teams signed up to create chalk art around the theme of "90's Throwback." Additional activities hosted by Davies' clubs and instructional departments will be held throughout the day, throughout the school and grounds.

Specific activities include:

- Lunch time performances by the Davies Jazz Band
- 12:00 to 3:00 p.m.– Inflatable games and National Guard Obstacle Course
- 1:30 to 3:00 p.m.– Dodge ball, badminton, and kick ball
- 1:30 to 3:00 p.m. – Improvisation performances in theater
- 1:30 to 3:00 p.m.– Karaoke/Talent Show in Commons #2
- 3:00 p.m.– Awards Presentation and Student-Faculty Basketball Game in Gym #1 (concludes by 3:45 p.m.)

Activities that run throughout the day include:

- Art Exhibit by the Davies students in Commons #2
- Technical Education and Foreign Language Department Open Houses
- Chalk Art creation in progress from 9:00 a.m. to 1:30 p.m.
- Henna Tattoos from 9:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m.
- Dunk Tank with administrators and teachers; dollars raised go to the Eagles Helping Eagles Fund
- Board Games in the Library

Food Sales include:

- Root Beer Floats, Burgers, and Brats prepared by the Family and Consumer Science cooking classes

In case of inclement weather, the outdoor sports and dunk tank activities will be cancelled; the chalk art contest will move indoors to Gymnasium #2 on paper squares, which will be hung in the hallways for judging. All other activities will be held as scheduled.
