The 351 kindergarten through fifth grade students at Longfellow Elementary School will participate in an All-School Activities Day on Friday, May 24 to celebrate the approaching end of the school year. Students will each receive a matching t-shirt provided by the Longfellow PTO as they arrive at the school on Friday morning.

Following a brief gathering in the school's gymnasium at 9:00 a.m. to get the day kicked off, the students and staff will move to various areas throughout the school to work their way through multiple physical activity stations at ten-minute intervals. Stations include such activities as hula hoops, tug-of-war games, wacky races, Hill Dill and yoga.

The day's activities will conclude with a group photo of the entire school at approximately 2:40 p.m.
