On Friday, May 24, Mark Seeba's fourth grade class at Washington Elementary School will present their rendition of The Hobbit.

For the last four weeks, the 20 fourth graders worked hard memorizing lines and stage blocking to deliver a strong performance. The classroom will be decorated with bedsheets, paper clips, and shower curtain rings to represent a theater, and to reflect the Hobbit aesthetic. Mr. Seeba has directed this performance for the past 19 years. In honor of the 20th year, former students from the first year of production, as well as former parents, are invited to the show. In addition, an audio describer will be in attendance to describe the performance in real-time for two blind attendees.
