

Ben Franklin Middle School Daily Announcements Monday, February 11th 2019

Good morning Wildcats! This is _____. May I have your attention for today's announcements? Today is Monday, February 11th- it is an "E" day. Tuesday will be an "F" day.

This week's Word of the Week is "RESPOND". The definition is "to answer or reply." Here it is in a sentence: "Please respond to my question."

Attention all students: Please check the lost and found across from the main office for any items you may be missing.

7th and 8th grade Boys interested in playing baseball this spring for Ben Franklin MS: There is a player/parent registration/informational meeting tonight in the North High Commons from 8-9 PM. Any questions see Coach Fiechtner.

There are many names we should be familiar with __ names of individuals who have devoted their entire lives to serving others, to making the world a better place for you and me. "Albert Schweitzer" is one of those names. Dr. Schweitzer was a German philosopher, physician, musician, minister, and missionary. Not only did Albert Schweitzer master all these fields, but he gave all his many talents in service to others. Albert Schweitzer was a brilliant, educated, and talented human being. Here's what he says to you today: One thing I know: the only ones among you who will be really happy are those who will have sought and found how to serve. We can serve others every day in many ways, big and small. Today, look for an opportunity to do something for someone else, then notice if it makes you feel happy. With something to think about, this is name of narrator . Make it a great day . . . or not. The choice is yours.
