Fargo Public School District #1

FARGO PUBLIC SCHOOLS GRADUATION CEREMONIES

Fargo Public Schools celebrates the hard work and dedication from all of its seniors as they prepare for graduation this weekend. The District will graduate a total of 742 students in ceremonies on June 4 and June 6. Comprehensive high schools will return commencement ceremonies to the FARGODOME after holding outdoors ceremonies last year due to COVID-19. The Fargo Public Schools Air Force Junior Reserve Officer Training Corps will do presentations of colors for all ceremonies. Of special note: This year's graduating class from Woodrow Wilson High School will be the final class to graduate under the high school's current name. It will transition to Dakota High School beginning in the next school year.
