EAGLES ELEMENTARY SCHOOL TO HOST EDUCATIONAL PERSPECTIVES PARENTS PANEL

Fargo Public Schools staff has an opportunity to learn from parents about some of the different cultures that make up the student body across the District.

WHAT: Educational Perspectives Parents Panel
WHEN: Thursday, June 2 from 1 to 4 p.m.
WHERE: Eagles Elementary School, 3502 South University Drive, Fargo
CONTACT: Kimmy Milligan, Eagles Assistant Principal, 701.446.3960 or milligk@fargo.k12.nd.us for more information

Parents of Fargo Public Schools students from Liberia, Iraq, Mexico, and Nepal will speak to elementary principals, Fargo Public Schools leaders, and Eagles Elementary School staff about how best to serve individuals from their cultures. The parents will give their presentations at the Educational Perspectives Parents Panel from 1 to 4 p.m. on Thursday, June 2 at Eagles Elementary School.

The speakers will address a number of topics about how to help their children learn and how to communicate with the parents. They have been asked to answer the following questions:

- What does education look like in their previous location?
- What challenges do they face with their own children going to school?
- What are the best ways to communicate with them?
- What hopes and goals do they have for their children as they go through Fargo Public Schools?
